Endangered Species (The Gabe Wager Novels Book 9) Rex Burns

When a woman burns to death, Gabe Wager uncovers a nest of short-fuse fanatics

The fire department finds her in the closet, knees clutched to her chest, body charred beyond recognition. At first they can't even tell that the corpse was a woman. Although the death appears accidental, they call in homicide detective Gabe Wager to make sure. Forensics identifies her as Pauline Tillotson, an FBI informant working from inside an environmentalist group with terrorist leanings. Her cover had been blown, and the extremists killed her to protect a sinister plan to annihilate Denver.

As Wager races to save his town, two policemen are killed and a teenager falls victim to an escalating drug war. Denver is coming apart at the seams, but if Gabe Wager can't stop the eco-terrorist plot, there won't be anyone left in the Mile High City to care.
