All'età di novantun anni Cossu Incoronata vedova Pintus rende l'anima a Dio gettando nella più profonda disperazione i suoi due figli, Sciantal e Giangaleazzo. La famiglia viveva, infatti, con la pensione di reversibilità del fu ingegner Pintus Quirino ed ora, con la dipartita della madre veniva a mancare l'unica fonte di sostentamento. Perché, a dispetto dell'età non freschissima, Giangaleazzo si dedicava all'arte della scrittura mentre Sciantal, un pochino indietro con l'orologio biologico, alle faccende di casa. Davanti al panico del fratello, che non aveva mai lavorato in vita sua, la dolce Sciantal, forse ritardata ma non stupida, gli propone di tacere sulla sua morte e mettere la mamma in un freezer per conservarla ed esibirla all'occorrenza. Detto fatto. La vita scorre tranquilla finché l'Inps non chiede una dichiarazione con firma autentica. Nuova disperazione di Giangaleazzo e nuovo intervento della sorella. Avrebbe dovuto sedurre la direttrice del locale ufficio postale per farle autenticare una firma falsa. Non si sa bene chi sedusse chi, ma i due si fidanzano, il documento viene autenticato dopo un'occhiata fugace al cadavere scongelato alla bisogna e sistemato a letto in penombra, e la vita va avanti. Proprio quando Giangaleazzo, per uno scherzo del destino, diventa uno scrittore famoso, bussa alla loro porta un ispettore dell' Inps mandato a indagare su quella pensionata di ben centoundici anni.
