Boz: Return to OZ Perry Orlando

Dorothy Gale-Parker, 110 years old, is living in an old age home. Protected by the magical kiss of the Good Witch of the North, all of her family and friends have passed on before her. She feels desperately alone and unwanted. Trapped in an aging body, seemingly impervious to illness, she yearns to return to OZ. Her fellow residents hatch a scheme to outwit the white-coats and Dorothy finds herself once more transported to that magical land only to discover that everything has changed, and not for the better. To her horror she finds that she is wanted for murder of the two witches and the Land of OZ is in chaos. She must find her friends, clear her name and get to the root cause of the problems that plague OZ. Along the way she discovers the mysterious force behind the changes in OZ and the secret organization bent on having the secrets for their own.
