Our Hungarian Vocabulary by Topic is filling a gap in the literature of teaching Hungarian as a foreign language. It contains the vocabulary of nineteen, thematically organized topics, thus making the book a useful supplement to all course books. In addition to the comprehensive and systematic presentation of the vocabulary, sample sentences based on everyday usage, cultural references and typical speech situations are also included. The most important keywords are highlighted to stress their importance. The book is recommended to both beginner and advanced level learners wishing to improve their language skills at home or in class.
