The greatest adventure of all is open to any willing traveler... Two ordinary boys find themselves caught up in the adventure of a lifetime. With the help of some friends, they must undertake a pilgrimage to the King's City, facing dangers and temptations every step of the way. In the tradition of John Bunyan's great spiritual classic, Pilgrim's Progress, this story presents the rich symbolism of the Christian life in all its depth and power. Combining the compelling beauty of the ancient Christian tradition with the excitement of an adventure story, it invites us to join the great pilgrimage of living as followers of Christ.
