Contingency, Behavioural and Evolutionary Perspectives on Public and Non-Profit Governance: 4 (Studies in Public and Non-Profit Governance) Luca Gnan

This volume assesses governance in public and non-profit organizations. Building on and challenging recent research in this area, this volume critically examines the contextual, behavioural and historical factors of governance.

Topics include; the role, behaviour and effectiveness of a board of directors; the relationships between board members and stakeholders; innovations in governance; accountability, transparency and integrity of governance; measuring and assessing organizational performance and new forms of governance arrangements in service provision.
