Faith House (Christmas Holiday Extravaganza) Robin Patchen

When Hurricane Sandy destroys Sadie's home, she's determined to restore it. She promised her dying grandmother she'd never abandon the house that is the only link to Sadie's schizophrenic father—a man who disappeared twenty years ago. Max has loved Sadie since grade school, but their mutual friend died when they were teens. A decade has passed, and he's finally found her. This time, he won't lose her—not to a flooded house hundreds of miles from home, or to her false hope as she awaits her father's unlikely return. When Sadie discovers her house is underinsured, she faces an impossible decision. Can she trust God enough to let go of her only connection to her dad? Can she trust Max enough to let go of her heart?
