From Book 1: Sumarra has the ultimate power of seduction. As one of two thousand descendants of King Solomon's ancient harem, her touch is as addictive as any drug. But that power comes at a price: she'll die at twenty-four, giving birth to a daughter who will suffer the same fate.

Sumarra and the women in her clan live under a set of strict rules to protect them. But on the night Sumarra plans to conceive, she and her sisters find themselves under attack from a group of male hunters, intent on destroying them.

Sumarra has always broken small rules and indulged rebellious tendencies. Now that the wives have been found, her defiance will either be their salvation or her own undoing.

In this first installment of the King Solomon's Wives series, Holly McDowell's rich storytelling paints an alluring and gripping romantic thriller with characters so well drawn, that their love and loss will have readers completely ensnared.
