Life doesn't stop after happily ever after. Jason "Clint" McClintock and Eric Look have overcome the impossible and done the impossible, turning a bond stronger than brotherhood into a blazing hot romance and surviving some of life's cruelest lessons. Now, they will discover how strong their love truly is and how deep it can be. Eric has promised never to leave Clint—a promise he never intends to break. But when standing by his man means giving up the opportunity of a lifetime, will he be able to make good on his words? The reappearance of an old friend and a once in a lifetime shot at achieving his dreams may be too much to resist. Is their love strong enough to weather the storm? Clint has what he never thought he could: a peaceful life and somebody who loves him. He has built his world around Eric and is determined not to let anything or anyone jeopardize what he has fought so hard to possess. When a mysterious woman shows up on his doorstep, he is reluctant to involve himself in her affairs; the secrets she carries may be the keys to both his future and his past. The only question is whether or not Clint is ready to face the truth and get the answers he needs. With the shadow of tragedy hanging over their heads, their love will be tested like never before.
