A series of accidents and illnesses has kept Niki Alexander, a world champion runner, from competing in the Olympic Games for three consecutive times. But in his case the change has been for the best. His future is looking bright and he is ready for tomorrow, if only he had a partner to walk life's path. These two Americans first meet in Olympia, Greece, home of the Olympic Games, and again on the gentle and biblical shores of Cenchrea. There they discover love... but they both know that in order for it to be realized they each have a race to run. Niki, the race of forgiveness and Phil, the race of patience. Will they cross the finish line... forgetting what is behind and straining toward the goal? Can they be victorious?
