Many students struggle with assurance of salvation. Despite God's desire that they be fully assured of their place with Him, students still struggle to know that they belong to Jesus and He belongs to them. This six-session study based on the book by author and pastor J.D. Greear will help students find assurance that can seem so elusive. They will understand that salvation isn't about just saying a prayer, walking an aisle, or holding up their hand. They will understand that salvation rests solely on their response of repentance and faith toward the finished work of Christ.

Features:

- Six sessions
- 48 pages
- 4 color cover / 1 color inside

Benefits:

- Students will know that God wants them to be assured of their relationship with Him.
- Help students find true assurance of their salvation.
- Provide students with clear understanding of belief and repentance
- Provide straightforward answer to the question of can a person lose their salvation
