Witchblade #47 Paul Jenkins

An affluent and influential family -- two children, two suicides. As a distraught mother and father try to contain their grief, Sara Pezzini listens to the voices of the Witchblade in order to uncover the truth. And what she finds will shock even the most hardened NYPD detective - hidden somewhere in the muttering sounds of the ancient blade are the voices of two children who have been crying out to be heard for many years. It's a cry that's gone unnoticed, both in life and in death -- until now.
