El tratamiento: 289 (Nuevos Tiempos policiaca) (Spanish Edition) Mo Hayder

Mo Hayder trae de vuelta al detective Jack Caffery, esta vez con la investigación de la terrible desaparición de un niño. En el parque Brockwell, una tranquila zona residencial al sur de Londres, la policía encuentra a una pareja brutalmente atacada y encerrada en su casa durante tres días, aunque aún les queda algo peor por descubrir: el hijo de ocho años ha desaparecido. Cuando el detective Jack Caffery llega y analiza las pocas pistas que tiene, encuentra inquietantes semejanzas con oscuros acontecimientos de su propia experiencia: la desaparición de su hermano cuando tenía nueve años, posiblemente a manos de un pederasta de la zona, y cada vez le resulta más difícil mantener la objetividad en el caso. A medida que la investigación y los análisis forenses avanzan, Caffery ve más conexiones entre pasado y presente, y entonces sus pesadillas se hacen reales... «Uno de los libros más aterradores que he leído.» The Guardian «Hayder va tejiendo una historia que es como una cuchilla de afeitar que se va hundiendo en tu alma. Una estructura narrativa magistral para un relato que te hará acurrucarte en tu cama a medianoche, preguntándote si ese ruido que escuchaste era un gato o la Muerte arrastrando su guadaña mientras se acerca...» Sunday Telegraph
