Your parents always warned you that watching too many horror movies was bad for you. But you always knew better. After all, if the movie became too intense, all you had to do was change the channel. But what happens when the horror won't end? Hoping for some weekend relaxation and fun, a group of co-eds rent a beautiful lake house. What they encounter is a murder-hungry madman who has watched a few too many 80s splatter flicks. The house has become a maze of blood and pain... and the only escape is death. NIGHT TRAP is a brutal, harrowing, and chilling tribute to all the slasher movies, comics, and games that warped so many young, impressionable minds in the 80s and 90s.
