Tehillim, psalms, are recited by us all, yet how often do we crave deeper meaning in the timeless words? In this ground-breaking work, Rashi's commentary, clearly translated and annotated into English, gives just that deeper dimension. Carefully crafted by an expert Torah scholar, this edition combines ease-of-use with invaluable insight and illumination. Not only does this work provide the reader with a comprehensive look at Rashi's commentary on Tehillim, but the clarity and principles painstakingly taught here give the reader skills for understanding Rashi's words in his commentaries on other works as well. With a flowing English translation of the Tehillim text, and a user-friendly, attractive side-by-side English-Hebrew layout, this Tehillim is truly unique. Features every single word of Rashi on the entire Book of Tehillim, translated, and with added notes for greater comprehension.
